

VOCATIONAL TRAINING AND EDUCATION IN BELGIUM

SEPTEMBER 2010

Reinald Van Weydeveldt

TABLE OF CONTENTS

I. GENERAL POLICY CONTEXT

I.1.1. A federal kingdom

I.1.2. Decision-making levels and institutions

I.1.3. An asymmetrical federalism

I.1.4. Separation of powers

I.1.5. Unique Belgian education situation for the bilingual Brussels-Capital Region

1.2. Demographic situation in 2009 and future developments

1.3. Macro-economic developments

1.4. Education level of the Belgian labour force

1.5. Qualification level comparison prospects by population 15+ and employed workforce

2. POLICY DEVELOPMENTS

2.1. Working on qualification frameworks following the European Qualification Framework (EQF)

2.2. Recent reforms of secondary education

2.2.2. Reform of secondary education practical changes in the system

2.3. Other policy developments having an impact on VET

2.4. The necessity of training: from a comprehensive approach in the Belgian labour markets to a comprehensive coordination of education and the labour markets and vice versa

2.5. Inclusive education as one of the Belgian educational challenges for the labour market

2.6. Maximum application of the equal opportunities policy

2.7. Recent developments related to CVET

2.8. The impact of the crises on education and training and future developments

2.9. List of educational priorities and challenges for 2020

3 LEGISLATIVE AND INSTITUTIONAL FRAMEWORK

3.1. Provision of learning opportunities administrative background

3.1.1. Competencies and responsibilities at federal level

3.2. Institutional framework for IVET & CVET

3.2.1. Dutch - speaking Community

3.2.1.1. Institutional systems for IVET

3.2.1.2. Institutions for CVET and Tertiary education

3.2.1.2.1. Institutional systems for continuing education

Continuing education and training for young school leavers and adults

3.2.2. French Community

3.2.2.1. Administrative and legislative framework and IVET

3.2.2.2. Administrative and legislative framework and CVET providers

3.2.2.2.1. Tertiary education

3.2.2.2.2. Institutional systems for continuing education

Continuing education and training for young school leavers and adults

3.2.3. German-speaking Community

3.2.3.1. Administrative and legislative framework and IVET

3.2.3.2. Administrative and legislative framework and CVET

3.2.3.2.1. Tertiary education.

3.2.3.2.2. Continuing education and training for young school leavers and adults

3.3. Different competencies in Belgium related to education/training and to the labour market: Overview

4 ORGANISATION OF VOCATIONAL EDUCATION AND TRAINING

4.1. Organisation of the secondary education system in the Dutch speaking Community

4.1.1. Compulsory secondary vocational and technical education

4.1.1.1. Compulsory secondary technical education

4.1.1.2. Compulsory vocational education (CVE-SVE)

4.1.1.3. Dual System: Apprenticeship and Centres for Part-time Education

4.1.1.4.1. Apprenticeship

4.1.1.4.2. Learning and working in a centre for part-time education (CPTE)

4.1.2. Non-compulsory secondary after secondary education (previously 3rd year of 3rd stage of secondary technical education (STE))

4.1.4. Professional bachelor degree (180 ECTS) 4.1.5. Pupil flow in initial VET

4.1.5.1. Pupil flow from one track to another

4.1.5.2. Data on year repetition, broken down by grade and programme

4.2. French speaking Community

4.2.1. Organisation of the education system in the French Community

4.2.2. Dual vocational education and training

4.2.2. 1. Dual vocational education and training centres (CEFAs)

4.2.3. Boards of examiners

4.2.4. 'Contract for School'

4.2.5. Qualification stream technical and vocational humanities

4.2.6. Industrial apprenticeship

4.3. German-speaking Community

4.3.1. Organisation of the education system, 2008/09

4.3.2. Upper Secondary Education Final Certificate

5. ORGANISATION OF CONTINUING VET

5.1. Organisation of Continuing VET in the Dutch speaking Community

5.1.1. Secondary adult education

5.1.2 Vocational programmes of the Flemish Employment and Vocational Training Agency (VDAB)

5.1.2 1. Competency enhancement for jobseekers and employees

5.1.2 2. Labour market outcome of VDAB programmes

5.1.3. Entrepreneurial training and Additional training (SYNTRA)

5.2. French speaking Community

5.2.1. Education for social advancement.

5.2.2 Part-time artistic education

5.2.3. Continuing training and education for small and medium-sized enterprises

5.2.4. Vocational training for job seekers and workers

After the Constitution was reviewed in 1988, a Regional Employment Office was created in December

5.2.5. Industrial apprenticeship contract (contrat d'apprentissage industriel, CAI)

5.2.6. Employment-training agreement

5.3. German speaking Community

5.3.1.The Office for Employment, Arbeitsamt der Deutschsprachigen Gemeinschaft (ADG)

5.3.2.Training for Middle Class and SME's IAWM

5.3.3.Association for initial and continuing education and training in Agriculture (VAL)

5.3.4.Institutes for adult continuing education (evening schools)

5.3.5.DPB – Agency for people with disabilities

5.3.6.Organisations for non-vocational and non-formal education

6 TRAINING OF TRAINERS

6.1. Dutch speaking Community

6.1.1. Initial training of teachers in education, including VET teachers

6.1.2. Specification of the skills certificates in secondary education

6.1.3. Professional status

6.1.4.Teachers and trainers in continuing VET

6.1.4.1.Adult education

6.1.4.1. 1. Evaluation of teaching staff

6.1.4.1. 2. Professional bachelor

6.1.4.1. 3. Trainers in the Flemish Employment and Vocational Training Agency(VDAB)

6.1.4.1. 4 Trainers at SYNTRA Vlaanderen

6.1.4.1. 5. Training programme for trainers of adults

6.1.4.1. 6. Pedagogical preparation for employers offering other types of workplace training

6.2 French speaking Community

6.2.1. Initial training of teachers

6.2 2.CVET teachers

6.2 2.1.Tertiary education

6.2 2.2.Trainer profile for distance learning

6.2 2.3. Education for social advancement

6.2 2.4. Part-time artistic education (ESAHR)

6.2 2.5. Vocational training for job seekers and workers

6.3. German speaking Community

6.3.1. Initial Training of Teachers

6.3.1.1.Lower secondary education

6.3.1.2.Upper secondary education

6.3.1.3.Teaching for pupils with special educational needs

6.3.2. Arts teachers

7 QUALIFICATION DEVELOPMENT AND VALIDATION OF LEARNING INCLUDING ROLE SOCIAL PARTNERS

Qualification development (with role of social partners) : tool for validation of non-formal and informal learning and as an orientation point for guidance

7.1.Dutch speaking Community

7.1.1. The Flemish Qualifications Structure

7.1.1.2. Professional qualifications

7.1.1.3. Educational qualifications

7.1.1.4.. Flemish Agency for Quality Assurance

7.1.1.5.. Recognition of foreign higher education qualifications and the professional recognition of teachers

7.1.1.6. Validation of non-formal and informal learning

7.1.1.6.1.The acquisition of a professional title

7.1.1.7 Involvement of social partners in VET

7.1.1.7.1.Social partners in IVET in Flanders

7.1.1.7.2.Involvement of social partners in IVET: Overview

7.1.1.7.3.Social partners in CVET in Flanders

7.1.1.8.Social partners in CVET in Belgium

7.1.1.8. Social partners in CVET in Flanders

7.1.1.9.1.Involvement of social partners in CVET: Overview

7.2.French – speaking Community

7.2.1.Consultation with enterprises at different levels of the education system

7.2.2.Qualification Agency

7.2.3.Skills validation system, certification and recognition

7.2.4. Involvement of social partners in VET: Overview

7.2.4.1.Social partners in IVET in Wallonia

7.2.4.2.Social partners in CVET in Wallonia

7.3. German – speaking Community

8 LIFELONG LEARNING AND FINANCING OF EDUCATION AND LEARNING

8.1. Dutch – speaking Community

8.1.1.Measures and financial incentives to stimulate lifelong learning

8.1.1.1. Incentives for pupils in the dual system

8.1.1.2. Part-time education

8.1.1.3. Study grants

8.1.1.4.Incentives for students in the entrepreneurial system (SYNTRA)

8.1.1.5. Attuning between education and labour market

8.1.1.6. Training and guidance vouchers

8.1.1.7. Paid training leave in the private sector

8.1.1.8. Encouragement premium for training credit

8.1.1.9. Compensation for social promotion

8.1.1.10. Work-based learning in the Flemish Employment and Vocational Training Service (VDAB)

8.1.1.11. Refund of VDAB training fee

8.2.French – speaking Community

8.2.1.The Charter for the Future

8.2.2.Marshall plans

9. VET FINANCING

Diagram : Flows of VET Financing in Belgium

9.1. Financing educational and training institutions in the Dutch – speaking Community

9.1.1. Secondary education

9.1.2. Adult education

9.1.3. Higher education

9.1.4. The Flemish Employment and Vocational Training Agency (VDAB)

9.1.5. Flemish Agency for Entrepreneurial training (SYNTRA Vlaanderen)

9.1.5.1. Apprenticeship – funding SYNTRA

9.1.5.2. Entrepreneurial training and additional training – funding SYNTRA

9.1.6. Public cost per student of different types of training at upper secondary level

9.1.7. Sector funds in Flanders

9.1.8. Sector agreements

9.1.9. Funding individuals

9.1.9.1. Student grants

9.2. French – speaking Community

9.2.1. Principles and control of financing.

9.2.1.1. Social benefits

9.2.1.2. School buildings

9.2.2. Secondary education

9.2.3. Higher education & Universities

9.2.4. Private education

9.2.5. Statistics on education budget in the French –speaking Community

10. EUROPEAN, INTERNATIONAL DIMENSION AND MOBILITY